

1.

Inject the saline into Nexsphere™ vial using luer lock syringe and shake to disperse and hydrate microspheres.

2.

Inject the contrast medium into Nexsphere™ vial with saline using luer lock syringe and shake for minutes to mix the contents.

3.

Transfer the mixed contents to a syringe.

4.

Inject the mixed Nexsphere™ contents into the lesion via a standard catheter.